Scope: Provide a meet like atmosphere for Raw and Raw (with wrap) lifters to test their one rep max in the squat, bench and deadlift under valid powerlifting judging and standards. The objective is to provide an honest check point to the lifter in the following area:

1. Technique
2. Compliance to the judging standard of a powerlifting meet.
3. Compliance to the correct lifting uniform for a powerlifting meet.
4. Selection of attempts in a meet or in practice

Objective: Foster an atmosphere for teachable moments not just provided by the Iron Mill Staff but by all those who attend.

Lifters: The amount of Lifters will not be capped.

Target (Lifter) Audience: Lifters, who are willing to learn, take realistic feedback and help others. This mean if you receive feed-back that you squat is high or your ass is off the bench you can accept and apply the lessons. Iron Mill wants positive lifters who egos does not fuel their lifting. We do not care how much you lift we care about getting better.

Note: The lifter can select to do all three lifts, two of the lifts or just one of the lifts.

Cost: $15.00 dollars for Iron Mill members, $25.00 for non-Iron Mill Members

Payment: Due before or on October 18, 2014; however if you contact me and say you are going to do it and seem sincere about it then just pay Iron Mill the day of the meet.
